Re: United States v. Oldamo Frazer, Case No. 22-cr-665 (PMH)

Dear Judge Halpern,

It came to my attention this morning that the Court expected defendant's response to the government's motion in limine on August 15, 2023. Below, I am requesting until tomorrow, August 17, 2023, to file defendant's response.

Unfortunately, I misread the Court's pretrial order as requiring the following submissions:

- (1) August 4: Gov't motion in limine with regard to 404(b) notice;
- (2) August 8: Defendant's motions in limine and response to Gov't Aug. 4 notice;
- (3) August 15: Gov't response to Defendant's Aug. 8 motion.

I now understand my error. Given the above, I am requesting until tomorrow, August 17, to respond to the government's submissions thus far. I have explained the foregoing to the government. Graciously, the government has no objection to my requested adjournment.

This two-day extension will give defense counsel adequate time to respond to the government's evidentiary submissions.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Rachel Martin
Assistant Federal Defender
